

Nurse Aide I

General Information for the Competency Examination

- The competency examination is available to individuals that pass a North Carolina state–approved nurse aide I training program.
- Pearson VUE is the state-approved vendor that conducts the examination.
- Examination information, including scheduling procedures, can be found in the Candidate Handbook.
- The examination application is available on the Pearson VUE website.